Venues

Choose from one of the following top golfing venues, where you can enjoy 18 holes of golf with refreshments throughout the day.

Brocket Hall Golf Club, Hertfordshire - Part of the splendid 543 acre Brocket Hall estate, the course was designed to offer some of the best golf in the United Kingdom. The challenging Palmerston and Melbourne courses are believed to be two of the finest in England.

Burhill, Surrey - The choice of two courses is an excellent venue for a real 'golfers' day. Some of the finest greens in Surrey and the magnificent River Mole complete the beauty of this course.

Forest of Arden, Warwickshire - The Forest of Arden is one of the finest golf destinations in the UK, with a range of facilities to impress every golfer, including two great courses. It has been home to a succession of International tournaments.

Foxhills, Surrey - Foxhills is one of the finest golfing resorts in Europe boasting two 18 hole championship courses, as well as a challenging 9 hole par 3 course.

Mill Ride, Berkshire - Donald Steel designed this course within the 175 acre private estate. It has been host to many championships including events on the European Seniors Tour and the Southern Region PGA Championship.

Rudding Park, North Yorkshire - Designed by Martin Hawtree, the course blends into the existing surroundings and is an idyllic setting for golf to test even the most discerning players.

Stoke Park Club, Buckinghamshire - From its beginning in 1908 Stoke Park has maintained a reputation as one of the finest parkland golf courses in the world. The Club's 27 hole championship golf course is set in 350 acres of 18th century parkland and was designed by Harry Shapland Colt.

St.Mellion International, Cornwall - The first golf course to be designed by the Golden Bear in Europe, two 18 hole championship - standard golf courses are on offer at St Mellion. The Nicklaus Course is renowned as one of the UK's best spectator courses.

The De Vere Belfry, Warwickshire - Host to four Ryder Cups, set in 500 acres of beautiful Warwickshire countryside, it is home to the famous Brabazon course Par 72.

The De Vere Oulton Hall, West Yorkshire - The 6,470 yard Oulton Park Golf Course was built by Dave Thomas and has varied terrain with many bunkers making for a compelling round. The 18 hole parkland course annually hosts the PGA City of Leeds Cup.

The De Vere Belton Woods, Lincolnshire - Host of the PGA European Seniors Tour 1995-1998 and current holders of the Midland PGA Championships, Belton Woods is a golfer's paradise.

The De Vere Carden Park, Cheshire - The Championship Nicklaus Course and the equally challenging Cheshire Course have beautiful panoramic views of both the Cheshire and Welsh countryside.

The De Vere Slaley Hall, Northumberland - Slaley Hall is the host to the annual PGA European Tour Great North Open and very rarely can you find two golf courses of this standard right on your doorstep.

The Grove, Hertfordshire - Designed by one of the worlds top designers, Kyle Philips, this sensational layout has shot to stardom and will host the 2006 AMEX World Golf Championship

The London Club, Kent - Championed by golfing legend Jack Nicklaus, the London Club prides itself on offering the best, not just in terms of the golf, but also the high standards provided by its staff and facilities. With two outstanding courses onsite and a reputation for excellent hospitality, this is a great venue.

Trevose, Cornwall - Trevose Golf & Country Club hosts three classic links courses overlooking Constantine Bay.

Woburn, Buckinghamshire - The scene of the British Masters for 20 years with many other top professional events. The Marquess course is a breath-taking addition to the golf club and joins the Duke's and Duchess courses to create a 54 hole complex that is possibly unrivalled anywhere in the UK.
