

High Performance Treasure Hunt Oxfordshire

Various dates available to suit your requirements

Sportsworld are pleased to propose a High Performance Treasure Hunt Challenge to take place in Oxfordshire. Guests will have a choice of high quality performance cars in a three hour race to solve a range of cryptic clues to locations in Oxfordshire. Guests are then invited to dinner at Le Manoir, one of England's finest restaurants situated in Great Milton, where a private room is available for prize giving and dinner and overnight accommodation provided.

Hospitality Packages

High Performance Cars

Guests will be put into teams of 2, each having the opportunity to drive their allocated car throughout the day. The following cars have been included in the package:

Aston Martin DB9

Quintessentially English, the new Aston Martin DB9 sets a new standard in its class due to its astonishing performance, beautiful styling and dedicated craftsmanship

Bentley Continental GT

The Bentley Continental GT is a prestige car that really knows how to move! Powered by a 6.0 litre, twin-turbocharged, 12-cylinder engine, it has a top speed nearing 200mph, accelerating from 0-62mph in 4.8 seconds

Ferrari 360 Modena F1

With an inspiring mix of innovative design and classic styling that draws on past Ferraris such as the 268SP, the 250LM and the Dino, the 360 Modena F1 is an uncompromising super-car experience.

Other high performance cars are also available, including the Porsche Boxter S, Maserati Quattroporte, Mercedes SLK 55 and Lamborghini Gallardo V10 to name a few

Le Manoir, Great Milton, Oxford

The modern French menu at the two-Michelin starred Le Manoir aux Quat' Saisons has been described as 'a twist of imaginative genius' and the cuisine is undoubtedly the focus of every guest's visit. Gary Jones, a Blanc protégé and Michelin starred chef himself, rejoined forces with Raymond as Executive Head Chef in August 1999
